January Monthly Meeting

Tuesday, January 31, 2016 Social: 6:30p Meeting: 7p Goins Auditorium, Pellissippi State CC

For our program this month, Jack and Susan Goodwin present “Cuba--The Times They Are a Changin’.”

For many Americans, Cuba has been the off-limits part of the Western Hemisphere for over 50 years. Even now, restrictions exist for Americans traveling to Cuba. Still, it’s easier than you might think to travel there. Both the rules for traveling and the country itself are changing rapidly.

The program is a travelogue--a road trip that began in Havana, continued to the Viñales Valley, Cienfuegos, Trinidad, and Santa Clara, and ended in Havana on the weekend that Fidel Castro died. Change is already under way in Cuba. Tourism is on the rise. A bit of capitalism is allowed for the Cuban people. Like the ubiquitous American cars from before the revolution, part of Cuba is still in the 1950s, but when you look under the hood, sometimes you see a modern engine.

Jack and Susan will give us a sense of the people and the place, with a bit of nature thrown in. If you’ve ever thought about visiting Cuba, be sure to join us for this program where they will try to answer your questions based on their experiences.

Help Legacy Parks Preserve Natural Beauty in East Tennessee

Nature photographers have a unique motivation and tool to preserve and expand our access to natural places. Legacy Parks Foundation is an East Tennessee nonprofit that works to accomplish those goals by ensuring our community enjoys exceptional recreational opportunities, natural beauty and open spaces, and that these assets exist for generations to come. Celebrating a decade of success, Legacy Parks has raised $8 million for parks and open space; helped conserve 1,000 acres of forest and farmland; and added over 500 acres of parkland in Knox County.

For 2017, Legacy Parks will focus on the three R's: Regional, River, and Rails, to include the following projects:

- Building new trails along Beaver Creek from Halls to Powell
- Developing marketing and fundraising plans for the Maryville to Townsend greenway
- Expanding the trail network on Department of Energy conserved land in Anderson County
- Increasing public access along the French Broad River and upper Holston River
- Building the iconic three-mile G&O Trail along an old railroad from near Chapman Highway to Ijams Nature Center's Mead's Quarry

Please help us continue this great work for our community by taking these two easy steps:

1. Visit <https://www.legacyarks.org/friend/> to become a Friend of Legacy Parks and leave a legacy of your own.
2. Donate your nature photos to help Legacy Parks provide outdoor recreation resources and information to help more people Get Out & Play. If interested, please contact info@legacyarks.org

2017 Salon Reminders

By the time this newsletter reaches you, the deadline for submission of digital entries is past, as is the deadline for submission of prints. Here are the remaining dates for the 2017 Salon:

Saturday, February 4, 2017: Judging for print and digital entries will take place at the First United Methodist Church in Knoxville from 12:00 pm until about 4:00 pm. This is the same location as last year.

Saturday, February 11, 2017: Judging snow date, same place, just in case.

Saturday, February 25, 2017: Salon dinner, 6:00 pm at the Bearden Banquet Hall (next door to Buddy's BBQ), again the same location as last year. The registration form for the Salon dinner is at the end of this newsletter.

Bio for Jack and Susan Goodwin

Jack and Susan Goodwin have each had a long-time interest in photography. Jack's began when he drooled over the cameras in the photography magazines at the barbershop during his childhood. After a few ineffective forays into snapshots and wet darkrooms, he finally reached the 35mm plateau in the mid 1970s. Over the years since, he has become a reasonably accomplished snapshot photographer with primary interests in event, travel, and nature. Susan moved from point-and-shoot photography to digital when she and Jack met in 2010. She has an excellent eye for the world around her. Show her a place, a child, an animal, a flower, and she's quick to grab her camera to capture the moment and the emotion.

SANP Members: Thanks to those of you who submitted suggestions for a new name for our newsletter. Because of the ongoing dialogue regarding the future direction of SANP, we will postpone renaming the newsletter for now. Continue to voice your opinions by emailing info@sanp.net.

“I wonder if the snow loves the trees and fields, that it kisses them so gently? And then it covers them up snug, you know, with a white quilt; and perhaps it says, “Go to sleep, darlings, till the summer comes again.”
