

SANP NEWSLETTER

Please note: There is no meeting scheduled for March. Our next regular meeting is April 30. See you then!

The SANP 2019 Salon Dinner was held on Sunday, March 17, at Buddy's Bar-B-Q Banquet Hall in Knoxville, a later date than usual due to flash flooding in February on the day the dinner was previously scheduled. March 17 was a beautiful day, and the Salon Dinner was enjoyed by many members and friends.

This issue of the newsletter provides the following: On page 2, read a thank-up note from Ed Dumas, along with our thank you to Ed, our judges, and our Salon donors. On pages 3 and 4, you'll find information about the winners of this year's Salon. The photos were better than ever this year! Congratulations to all who participated. Page 5 features Ed Stickle's People's Choice, "Incoming Shetland Puffin." Check it out.

One-Day Field Workshop with John Gerlach Announced

SANP and the Smoky Mountain School of Photography are offering a one-day workshop with renowned nature photographer John Gerlach. To find out details and sign up, go to this link:

<https://smokymountainsop.com/sanp/>

After March 31, if spaces remain, the workshop will be opened to the public. Read more about John Gerlach on p. 2.

2019 SANP Salon Best of Show Winners

Pleneau Island, by Michael Miller, was awarded Best of Show for Projected Images. It also received 1st Place in the Scenic Category. Congratulations, Michael!

A Note from Ed Dumas, Salon Chair

This year's salon was quite a success, and I would like to thank all of the folks who stepped up to make it happen. Thanks go to Kendall Chiles, Ron Sentell, Bob Turney, Helen Turney, Steve Shackelford, Mark Frankel, Paul Schubert, Ed Stickle, Clay Thurston, Bobbie Thurston, Holland Rowe, Brad Cottrell, Sharon Wright Cottrell, Jim Britt, Ron McConathy, and Melissa Dumas for help with the judging and the salon dinner.

And thanks to our judges for this year who were Don McGowan, Tom Cory, and Harold Stinnette in digital and Pat Cory, Jerry Whaley, and Wayne Setzer in prints.

I also want to thank our sponsors who have donated door prizes. They were the Smoky Mountain Field School, f/32 Photo, Thompson Photo Products, Aubrey's Family of Restaurants, Holland Rowe, Bob Turney, Brad and Sharon Cottrell, and the UT Professional and Personal Development Program.

I want to thank the staff of the Bearden Banquet Hall for hosting us again this year, providing fantastic food, and helping to make our salon dinner a huge success. Last, but not least, I'd like to thank all the folks who have contributed images to the salon over the years. Without you, there would be no salon!

On a personal note, this will be my last year as salon chairman. We have several folks who have indicated their interest in stepping up to take the reins, and I wish them the best of luck and will give them my full support. Thanks to everyone who has made my years as salon coordinator fun and productive!

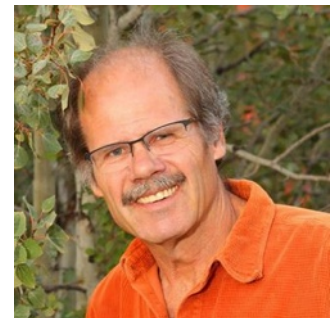

--Ed Dumas

THANKS go to Ed Dumas for his impassioned, calm service to the club for the last several years as chair of the annual salon. Ed, your attention to detail and timely responses to inquiries have made you an outstanding chair. We all appreciate you and your dedication to the club!

Meet John Gerlach . . .

Trained as a wildlife ecologist, after university John began to pursue his dream of becoming a professional nature photographer and photo educator. For over forty years, John has taught hundreds of field workshops and one-day seminars and has been published widely. He leads several winter photo tours of national parks and has led over forty photo tours of the best game parks Kenya has to offer -- Samburu, Lake Nakuru and Masai Mara. Read more about John and explore his website at <https://www.gerlachnaturephoto.com/>.

The opportunity to learn from John and photograph Cades Cove on April 13 is available exclusively to SANP and Oak Ridge Camera Club members just until the end of March. Go to <https://smokymountainsop.com/sanp/> to read more and sign up, but don't wait! The end of March is only two weeks away (as of March 18).
